

Eagle Eye Enterprises
13396 Tollhouse Rd.
Clovis, CA 93619

Multiple Resource Usage

Oak Tree

1. Harvesting of Acorns:
  - from Blue, Black, White, Golden, Live, & Canyon Oaks
as well as from the Chinquapin
2. A Hollow Oak is home to the Owl
3. Hollow Limbs are used for Handgame Drum
4. A Fallen Hollow Oak Trunk is used for a Foot Drum
5. The Second layer of White Oak Bark is used for Tanning
6. The Inner Bark is used for Medicine
7. A Slab of the Oak Trunk was sometimes used on the front entrance of the Nobe or Bark House
8. Oaks were use for Games and Relaxation:
  - for playing Tree Tag
  - for Swings, especially for jumping into ponds
  - makes Shade for, relaxation or making baskets and tools
9. Mushrooms grow under oaks or near oaks
10. Young Oaks used for War Club handles
11. Young Oaks used for Acorn Stirring Sticks & Hot Cooking Rocks
12. Young Oaks used for Walking Sticks
13. The Oak produces other “gifts” known only to the Mono
14. Last but not least, Oaks used for fire wood